

A friend phoned me several days ago and said that the Lord had laid it on her heart to pray WITH someone every day during these challenging times. She related that she had cancelled an appointment that day, and at the conclusion, she asked the receptionist if she - my friend - could pray WITH her. The receptionist said 'please do.' Before we concluded our chat, my friend asked if she could pray WITH me and I was happy for her to do so.

As we practice 'social distancing,' we have the opportunity to reach out to others who are confined at home, whether they are members of our church family or others, whom the Lord places on our hearts and minds. Let's not just pray FOR them but WITH them.

I am keeping focused on Philippians 4:6,7:

6 Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

7 And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, shall guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. NASB
