

Hi,

I wanted to share a special time that I felt the Lord reach out to me. It will be two years ago on May 13th that I had surgery to remove an eight pound (cancerous) ovarian tumor. I honestly didn't know if I would survive this trial or if I was going to go be with the Lord (sooner than I thought would). I had many prayer warriors praying for me, I was praying without ceasing.

Not knowing how things would turn out I remember having a regret; I'd wished I'd read the Bible a lot more often than I had been reading it! I kept thinking about how I have God's Holy word (in many translations, in printed form, on the computer, etc.), but I'd taken it for granted... I had to apologize to the Lord and I told Him that if I lived through this I wanted to spend more of my time on earth getting to know Him (before I see Him face to face)!

With the virus creating a lot of my time at home instead of at work, I realize once again that this is another perfect opportunity to spend a lot more time in His word.

Isaiah 55:11 "...so is My word that goes out from My mouth: It will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it."

John 1:1 "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."
